EDITOR'S MESSAGE

During the past year the students of Queen Elizabeth have given much toward the war effort. The total war savings stamp sale up to time of publication was $1121.25. The total for the Junior High was $293.75. The average per room for the Junior High was $48.95. Besides the sale of war stamps a considerable amount was contributed to other war funds. The "Milk for Britain Fund" received $20.00. The "Ship Fund" received $10.00, and the "Russian Relief" received $4.65. This, along with the excellent work done by the Junior Red Cross, constituted the main part of our war effort.

Not only financially but also in man-power and womanpower has this school aided the war effort. The first teacher to heed the call of his country was Mr. Turner, who left in 1940 and is now a Captain in the Q.O.C.H., serving over-seas. Mr. McLean, closely followed by Mr. Connor and Mr. Ingaldson, left to do their part in His Majesties Armed Forces. The next teachers to leave were not men, but were two young women who left in the early part of the year. Miss Alley and Miss McLellan joined the C.W.A.A.E. and are now in training, we understand, in Western Canada.

The teachers we now have, have done their best to make this a successful year.

For this, we would like to thank each and every one of the teachers on the Junior High Staff.

We would also like to thank Mr. Knapp and Miss Bambrick, without whose help the printing of this paper would not have been possible.

In closing, I would like to thank all those who helped me in the publication of this Year Book:

| VII B President | Tom Dancer |

I wish to express my thanks first of all to the members of our school council who have filled their respective positions to the best of their abilities.

The Executive has met six times during the past year carrying on the affairs of the Junior High. Although Gordon Saunders did not receive an opportunity to "sub" for president, he co-operated in the business-like manner of a Vice-President.

The Social functions of our school, under the capable management of Laurette Coutu, were well carried out.

Lloyd McGill, our Sports Captain, deserves a great deal of praise for the capable way in which he managed sports in the Junior High.

Stella Hodge and Eleanor Clark, our librarians, are to be congratulated on their successful work in our library.

Under the competent guidance of Cliff Murchison our Lit Night proved a huge success.

Last but not least was the editing of this Year Book, which was taken over by Editor-in-chief, Ken Keeping.

Each class president has done much to provide the Council with information so needed to enable our Council to work for the benefit of all the students.

To those who will be taking over these duties next year goes our sincere wishes for the success and pleasure enjoyed by us. May you, with similiar help from the teachers and student body, continue to uphold that glorious reputation of Queen Elizabeth Junior High.

| Teacher | Miss Allan |
| President | Tom Dancer |
| Secretary | Adam Russell |
| Treasurer | Margaret Bodie |
| Red Cross Pres. | Margaret Bodie |

A member of the Council this year was Cliff Murchison, who was Literary Convenor.

The Lit. Night this year was a success for the two GRADE 7's who between them put on a minstrel show.

The Red Cross of this room responded to all the different drives and teas.

They also did much in collecting money for the "Milk for Britain Fund".

The boys and girls who entered the Field Day were: June Dowse, Lucille Maxwell, Harry Cholakis, Cliff Murchison, Tom Dancer, Adam Russell, Bruce Gordon, and Lucille Mercer.

LX A Biographies

Elaine Horner- LX A doorkeeper who spends most of her time talking to Mario. Her ambition is to be a doctor.

Mario (Bent) Brnd- does an awful lot of laughing. Mario spends most of her nights playing nursemaid to children.

Mora Joyce- page-boy girl of LXA who likes to get into arguments and "Oh boy" keep out of her way.

Joyce Froud- the blue-eyed blonde who likes her men small, for instance "The Superman of LX A.

Hazelle Hutchison- spends her time conversing with H.P. and G.B. but that isn't where her heart lies. LX B takes care of that.

Carol Davison- How does she always manage to get into LX B's library period? It couldn't be a former heart-throb, could it Carol?

Helen Thorsteinsson- She is very quiet in a noisy sort of way. We often wonder who she has her eye on.

What lies in the minds of 9 A???

Audrey Swan- laughs at any joke. She usually walks with the "Herald" of our Lit. Night play.

Maxine Miller- A little busy body in the third row who is always trying to attract the boys' attention by pushing up her hair.

Lenore Martin- We often wonder why Len moved to that back seat, but we all KNOW why she was moved back.

Mary Allan- Take note of the young woman in the second row. Put her out on the sports field and she's tops.

Gilbert Beatson- an accomplished pianist who is also an accomplished student and talker.

Hugh (Höiman) Van Buren- can work when he wants to but he doesn't always want to. (Eh Höiman)

Bill(Sweet William)Halstead- LX A president;

who, when asked what he wants to be, answers."I am going to be a great comedian."

Tom Erskine- He helps "Sweet William" make queer noises. At present his only ambition is to get out of school.

Harry Wilson - An English chap who doesn't take French. He is often seen asking Tom for advice.

Alan Grant- All the teachers say he attracts the young ladies of his corner. His mouth is used as a modern pen-holder.

Laurraine Schwartz- She has many callers, I wonder if they're all business? What do you say Laurraine?

Andy Byman- president of Junior High. He wants to be a Chemical Engineer but he has music for a sideline just in case.

Laurette Coutu- Social Convenor for Junior Hi. She spends her nights in her room (Don't get me wrong) she has male interests too.

Allan Dryden- One of the wealthier paper boys who wants to be an Agricultural Engineer. He fiddles on the side.

Mabel Moorecraft- Meet the only girl who enjoys a Latin Period.(Don't worry) It isn't Latin she enjoys.

Victor Dale- The Bell-Boy of the Jr. High. He goes out to ring the bell but doesn't always come back.

Peggy Heap- She may be "petite" but don't get her mad. Peggy is getting up in the world of music. She even played on the radio.

Bill Miller- A lad who used to live in Fort Rouge and for some unknown reason he has been seen over there a lot recently.

Jack Henderson- A carefree type who laughs a lot with H.H. who was moved away. Goodness knows what his interests are.

Bob Wall-A walking dream. The sky scraper of LX A whose mind seems to wander a lot. Is it a girl, Bob?

Kathleen(Bing)Fryday-one of the few quiet ones of lXA. Bing was one of the enthusiastic bowlers of last fall.

Charles McNaughton- a certain Mr. S. is kept company in the four feet class by this swell newcomer Lee Pratt- never really settles down. He wants to be an Air Force officer or an eletrical engineer Lloyd McGill- Sports Rep. for the Junior High. He has been caught winking at the girls many times. He is sometimes seen escorting L.C.home
 George McCreary- A new Free Press carrier salesman who ought to be able to sell anything by the way he talks in school.
 Gordon Saunders- Superman of Nine A who has a good time in school.(We think). We wonder what he and M.M. talk about.
 Bill Upshur- The curly-haired young fellow of 1X A who seems to enjoy sitting behind our blue-eyed blonde.
 - Mae Blackwell- Another artist in 1X A who has quite a large following of young Gentlemen. It isn't the art they're interested in.(Believe me).
 High MacTavish- A non-French student from Swan River, who has some personal interests in his Home Town.
 Ken Keeping- That tall talkative editor who worried about a girl from the city this winter but now that's over.

Mr. Hawn - Gilbert, name some liquid which won't freeze.

Gilbert. - Hot water.

Mario Brad. - I'm a little stiff from bowling.

Mrs. Richards- Where did you say you came from?

The organization of the Junior Red Cross of the Junior High took place at the beginning of the School Year.

During the year the girls and the lady teachers gathered every Monday morning for an hour to do Red Cross work, While the boys took Cadet Training. This does not mean however, that the boys did not also belong to the Junior Red Cross as they have done their bit in many activities.

Some time was spent in knitting garments for the comfort of the men in the navy:-

- 15 scarves
- 8 helmets
- 2 toques
- 2 pairs of mitts

However, our main task consisted of the knitting of many garments for refugee children and infants in the bombed areas.

The articles made were as follows:-

- 11 pairs baby booties
- 22 pairs baby mitts
- 18 baby bonnets
- 86 children's scarves
- 22 pairs children's mitts
- 19 sweaters (children)

The members of the Junior Red Cross take this opportunity to thank those who so very kindly donated the following to our contribution:-

- 3 afghans
- 7 sweaters
- 8 bonnets
- 8 pairs of booties
- 1 pair of mitts
- 3 scarves
- 2 pair of socks
- 1 baby's dress
- 1 pair rompers

On March 21st. a tea was held on the main floor of the school from 2.30 to 5.30. There were tables one for each grade of the Junior High, there was also a home-cooking table and a display of the work which had been turned in up to that date. The guests were entertained by a programme of music given by the students. We would like to thank the parents and our friends who were not only good enough to attend out tea but also contributed liberally to our supplies. The receipts of the tea were $53.96 but were brought up to $60.00 by some Red Cross money which had been in the bank since the previous year.

ON TO VICTORY

The taxi's waiting at the door,
And John is climbing in,
His airforce blues are freshly pressed,
He sits with a square set chin.
His Mother's weeping by the door,
For John her son, is off to war.

And father's on the steps in front,
He's said his last good-byes.
He thinks of happy memories,
That pass before his eyes.
The by-gone days when John's chums
Had played with him, they'd had such fun.

Gone are the hours of schoolwork,
Changed for the roar of a plane,
The town-rink hockey matches,
And the thrilling cries of the game.
The player's sticks have changed to guns,
The boys have left to fight the Huns.

POEM PAGE

These poems come from old Q.E.
And pretty good they seem to me.

I pulled my hiar, o'erworked my brain,
And if no good, I'll be in shame.

So please don't say that they are bad,
Say they are good and I'll be glad.

FIRST PRIZE POEMFor Their Country

The battle ground is covered with blood,
The soldiers' faces are covered with mud,
They're waiting for the order, "Charge",
Though their army small, the enemy's large.

At last the order came to their ears,
They went over the top, they lost their fears.
These Canadians were very brave,
For their country they meant to save.

The rifles crack, the cannons roar,
But they did not mind, this Canadian Corps,
Soon the battle was over and won,
And through the trees they could see the sun.

Gordon Sundin.

A Storm in it's Rage

A cloudy green mist in a ghastly form,
Envelopes the earth before the storm.
It casts dark shadows upon the ground,
Lurking the corners of buildings 'round.
Streaks of lightning, dashes of thunder,
Bursting the sky in countless number.
The raindrops patter the streets below,
In tinkling tunes that come and go.

The mist grows thicker in the street,
The raindrops form puddles about my feet.
The streets are lonely, barren and bare,
As if fairy ghosts were prancing on air,
A ghostly feeling creeps up my spine; but then

The dawn has come, the night has fled.
The sun breaks through the clouds overhead.
The rain has vanished with the night,
To behold! What a glorious sight!

BILLY-

BONNIES

LXB Biographies

Ray Dennisch- The lad who curls his feet around the empty desk in front of him and wishes for a cushion.

Dorothy Dunn - Despite a long absence at the first of the year she has done well.

Ray Dowse- We wonder what Ray does the nights he is not working at the Drug Store. Never mind Ray you'll whistle at the right one some day.

Audrey Fisher- The flashing red head of LXB. What's the cause of the yawning, Ginger?

Bill Huht- His hobby is photography. He and Merrill etc. seem to have a good time in all periods.

Bob Hunt - an innocent lad in school, but when seen at nights he is with a girl from VIII B.

Louisa Johannesson- That "glamour girl". Occasionally loses her bobby pins. She is frequently seen around ????????? horace Wilson Hutchison- alias "Willy". He and the gang often go to the show but usually alone.

Daryl Kerr- is for ever trying to run down other people's jokes but just try and run down one of his.

Hermine La Ferriere- a little termite who eats her way into everyones heart with her long dark eyelashes.

Mona La Franco- Mona has brains in her feet as well as in her head. She is a wonderful dancer.

Verland Tuckwell- Rumors are that Verland has been seen with George B. a former student of our school. Verland is usually a very good worker.

Fred Scanes- Veronica Lake of LXB. He sits and dreams all day of his great profile (what profile?)

Ken Wallace- He folls around with Jack Warwick in school, but after school he is seen with quite a different person. He takes care of a heart in IXA.

 Mack Warwick- keeps Ken company in a few of the periods. He used to work in the bowling alley.

We wonder what he does in his spare time now.
 Ken Wall- left his books in school but never comes to get them. Maybe he wants to reserve seat space. Isn't it a coincidence that he came back the same day as Dottie.

Theresa Baker- Giggle Gal of IXB. O, so rought on our floors!!!! We bet her favorite chocolate bar is "Oh Henry".

Angeline Basil- quiet in school but who know what she and Flora have cooked up for the evening.

James Clark- The "blushing" president of IX B is a swell kid and now that he is out in the business world we are sure he will go a long way.

Loria Conely- a good girl in school but when she and a certain girl frm VII A get together she changes to quite an extent.

Maureen Crawford - an Irish lass who lacks in height but not in personality. Those looks that are passed between Mona and her ????. Her favorite song seems to be "Jim".

Erill Dagg- His foolish questions supply a lot of interest and continual laughs for the rest. He is quite interested in a certain Daisie.

Joseph Wimble (Little Joseph) - seems to have a good time explaining science to the class. We wonder if he likes it.

ella Hodge- Make way for Auntie Stella. She sits behind little Quiseppe and boy, what a disturbance.

n Smith- Fascinated by a certain M.C. He says its awful to sit among a bunch of dumb clucks. We wonder who the dumb one is.

len Hollingshead- She is admired by the Editor (we hear) but she is very coy about it. We have given the editor the third and fourth degree
 but he won't talk.

Marion Hollingshead- is a clever violinist who played in our Lit. Night accompanied by her sister Helen. Bob S. should be given the third degree also.

Russell Maine- Russell gets his exercise by walking daily to the basket to dispose of his gum.

Carl Mattson- plays baseball 'till dark but where he goes after nobody knows.

Joyce McBain- We can't name anybody with Joyce now but some day we'll find out who it is. Joyce and Grace seem to be interested in something down in that corner. What is it, Joyce?

Patsy McGowan- A certain boy in IX B thinks she is very interesting to watch during school hours. Pat has won many badges at Guides. Keep up the good work, Pat.

Grace Murchison- She is another one of these camera fiends. She has a wonderful collection of Pictures in her album. Hmm, very interesting!

Jim Murray - Your jokes are a little corny, Jim, but we don't mind that.

Flora Nicholson- Glora and Angeline claim they cook cake and candy but we're sure it isn't for themselves. Who are the eaters, Flora?

Ronald Sales- Its as bad as a "Hen Party" when he and Daryl get together. Hr is often seen with M.S. at the Plaza or the Rex.

Bob Stephens- fools around in school with Fred but usually does good work. We would like to know what M.H. sees in him.

Fred Tainton- He goes with Bob S. during the day but at night his older brother takes care of him.

= = = = =

Jack W. - What is your brother in school?

Fred T. - Half-back.

Jack W.-- No, I mean in studies.

Fred T. - Away back.

With the co-operation and efforts of these officers and N.C.O.'s the Queen Elizabeth Cadet Corps have had a year of Cadet training. The Cadets Corps was often threatened by an unbalanced condition due to joining up of our very capable instructors, Mr. McLean who left us to join the Air Force, Mr. Ingleson and Mr. Connor did much to add to the success of the Cadet Corps.

During different times of the year the Cadet Officers had full responsibility of the Cadet Corps.

We have had little practise at shooting at King George, in fact, some of the cadets didn't know whether to shoot at a target or a light. The results being two lights and one socket knocked out.

Mr. Robertson was with us for a short time but he aided us considerably. Our present teacher Mr. Hawn has done his utmost to pull up the standard of the corp. Mr. Knapp made our inspection a success due to the efforts he put forth to secure time for us during school hours.

We would have liked to start signalling, first aid and map reading classes but the lack of instruction crippled us.

We would like to thank the School-Board for obtaining seventy dummy rifles for use in musketry. This was one of the many things the School Board did for us. We would also like to express our gratitude towards the army for supplying us with the most capable Cadet instructors which were as follows:
Sergeant Major Arral; Sergeant La Plant;
Sergeant Poole.

We from Grade IX have been grounded long enough it seems, for next year we take to wings. The establishment of an Air Cadet Corps is now started at the Collegiate.

Cadet Major
Andrew Byman.

INSPECTION

The Inspection of the Queen Elizabeth Junior High and King George V Cadets was held on the afternoon of May 22. Cadet Kanor A. Byman was in command of the whole battalion. Captain Halstead, Captain Grant and Captain MacLean were in charge of the companies. After the general inspection the separate classes went through their routines. The inspecting Officer, Lieut. Cummings, congratulated the Cadets afterwards on the splendid showing that was given. The Inspection was very successful.

Grade Vlll A is a small class of 32 pupils. Many of the students of this class have left school to take their place in the business world of Greater Winnipeg.

We have had several parties this year, two of which were roller skating and the other a house party at which everyone had a good time.

Some of the honor students of this class are as follows: Gladys Wynne, Geraldine Brewer and Shirley Force. It looks as though the honors for clever students go to the girls in this room but I'm sure the boys don't mind.

Quite a few of the students participated in the field day and on the whole they were well rewarded for their efforts.

Together with Vlll B our room put on a play called "Lulu Belle's Beau" at the Lit. Night on April 1st. The actors of this play can well be proud of their splendid performance. The actors Vlll A were as follows:

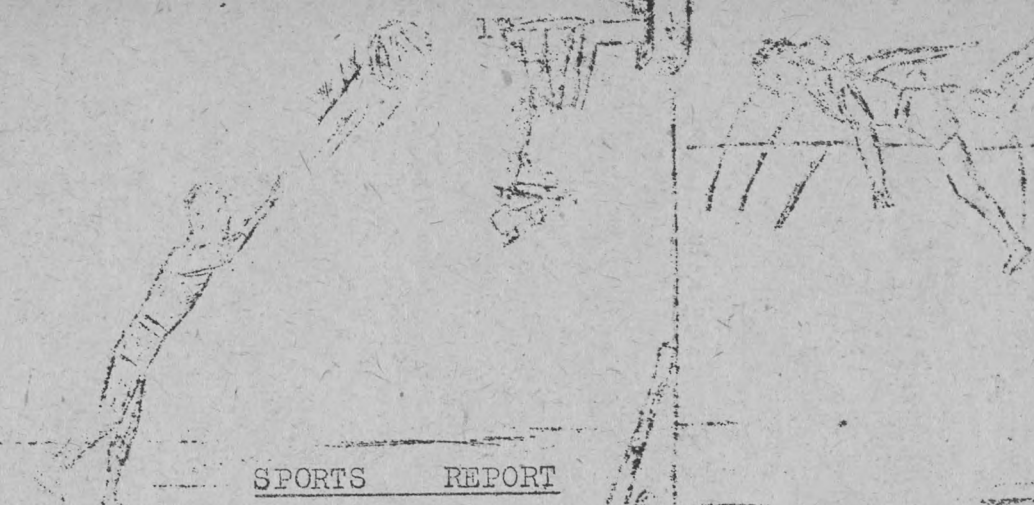

| | |
|------------------|----------|
| Isabelle Kracow | Mother |
| Lillian Speed | Maid. |
| June Health | (Twins. |
| Joan Johannesson | (|

We can safely say that this class has worked quite well throughout the year and those who pass will certainly be ready for Grade IX.

SPORTS REPORT

HOCKEY: Hockey was late in getting organized but despite this our team showed up favorably in the few games played against East Kildonan. We lost only by a small margin. In each game they fought to the last second but were unable to keep up the terrific pace set by the more experienced Kildonan Club. Because of the lack of men teachers we could not obtain the coaching which is necessary to build up a strong club.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Shearer of the Collegiate who helped to organize our team.

BASKETBALL: Girls' basketball was organized but the girls were not enthusiastic enough and the schedule was cancelled.

Boys' basketball got underway with a bang. After several practices, the team tackled St. Paul's College. In the first game our team was defeated by a large margin but in other games they showed up more favorably.

BASEBALL: Through the kind help of Mr. Knapp the Norwood Schools were able to compete in the Suburban Schools' softball Tournament. The first game was fatal to the Norwood girls who lost by a score of 15 - 2 to the Transcona Ten. The boys, however, did much better. They defeated Provencher by a score of 3 to 2. This, along with the victory by default over Fort Garry, put Norwood in the semi-finals. After defeating St. James 18 to 3 they met the Transcona

Team who defeated our boys 4 to 1. This gave Norwood so

SOCIAL REPORT

WEINER ROAST: Can it be true? A weiner roast in the rain! I'll tell the world it can be true. It was on a Friday in the month of October, that our two Grade Nines decided to have a little excitement. To be sure the weather had been lovely all afternoon, but this was too good to be true, for sure enough it began to rain. It was now too late to cancel the party so we went ahead with our plans, rain or no rain. We were fortunate enough to obtain the basement of the United Church. The only teacher present was Miss Morrison, who did everything in her power to make the party a real success. The weiner roast began at 8.30. We had music, and our party commenced. What with music and singing, you can be sure fun was had by all.

That was only the beginning however, after that, a delightful lunch was served: red hot weiners, buns, and plenty to drink. This being completed, the basement was put back in order, kitchen cleaned and with the singing of "God save The King" the basement was cleared, lights out, bringing to a close a perfect evening.

OUR FIRST DANCE: The students of Grade IX A and B had another very successful party, which was held in our School gymnasium, Nov. 1941. This was not just another party - it was our first dance held in honor of Mr. Connor who is now an officer in the army. Other teachers present were Miss McLellan and Miss Alley, who both did their utmost to make our dance a real success. The dance started at 8.00. The boys were quite shy so a line similar to a "Conga Line" was formed and thus the party began. We danced until 10.30 when we were served with refreshments. The cutest remark of the evening- "Gee, if only school could be like this forever." Ues, it would be swell, wouldn't it.

ROLLER SKATING: Our final party was a Junior High Roller Skating Party held at the Auditorium in the month of March. All teachers were present. The boys and girls skated from 2.30 to 5.30 and I'm sure everybody had a swell time. This being the last party left to mention, as social, I would like to express my thanks to the teachers and our Principal, Mr. Knapp, who are long to be remembered by the students of the Queen Elizabeth Junior High, for their hard work toward the success of our parties.

Social Convenor, Laurette Coutu.

How many of you students enjoy roller skating?- it seems as if everybody does. That was the same response received from Vll's when it was decided to hold a roller skating party on Friday in Oxtober. The weather was fine so, many pupils walked to the Auditorium. We arrived there at 2.30. Everyone roller skated, even Miss Allan. The party came to an end at 5.00, and an enjoyable time was had by all.

On March 27 another enjoyable party was held.

Marie Kapinski.

This year two roller skating parties were held by the Grade Vlll's, both being at the Auditorium. The skating lasted from 2.00 to 5.00. Teachers and pupils alike, all skated. According to the remarks heard afterwards, the parties were a huge success.

|---------------------|-----------------|
| Teacher | Miss Boyd |
| President | Eleanor Clark |
| Vice-President | Harold Dremine |
| Sec. Treasurer | Frances Leithie |
| Red Cross President | Margaret Stuart |
| Red Cross Secretary | Audrey Powrie |
| Social | Mary Isaak |
| Sports | Paul Cholakis |

Grade VIII B is a class of 41 pupils. We are a pretty good class of workers although this is not always the teachers' opinions. Our class had had several parties at which we had a good time. After the last set of exams the Honor Students were: Dick Tuxsworth, Rita Wilson, Donald Payz. Dick Tuxsworth has stood first throughout the year. Don missed two months of work and we think he has done exceptionally well.

Our sports Captain is Paul Cholakis who organized a team to play other teams. It had been practicing for some time but due to the weather they could not secure games so the team was cancelled. The team was made up of the two Grade Eights. The girls made up a team which was captained by Mary Isaak.

At the Lit. Night held in April 1st. our room put on a play which lasted for five minutes. It was called "Lulu Belle's Beau" or "A Flash in the Pan but It wasn't Gold". The performers were:

| Margaret Stuart | Lulu Belle |
| Ross Browne | Horace. |

Hugh MacT. - Why did you give up singing in the choir?

L. Coutu.- I was absent one Sunday and the people thought that the organ was repaired.

HAVE YOU EVER SEEN A "Lit. Night?" Lit Night

The Queen Elizabeth Junior High held their Annual Lit Night on April 1st. in the Auditorium of the Collegiate. The innovation of having admission by the tickets proved to be successful for the hall, while filled, was not overcrowded. A silver collection was taken at the door and this added a sum of $15.00 to the Student Council Treasury.

Grade IX'S "The Obedient Princess"

The part of the king was played by Ken Keeping who was supposed to be a strict father. His wife was played by Laurette Coutu.

Theresa Baker played the part of the Obedient Princess. The Prince's part was played by George McCreary and the Herald was played by Gilbert Benson.

Grade VIII's

"Lulu Belle's Beau"

The part of the rich rancher, Horace, was played by Ross Browne. Lulu Belle was played by Margaret Stuart. Other characters were:

| | |
|-----------|------------------|
| Mother | Isabelle Crakow |
| Dick | Glenn Anderson |
| Minister | Bill Brenzy |
| Maxie | Ralph Peckary |
| The Twins | Joan Johannesson |
| | June Heath. |

Grade VII'S "The Merry Minstrel Show"

The part of the interlocuter was played by Frank Reith, supported by a cast of 14 minstrels. Gordon and Joyce Mark then gave the audience some music, Hawaiian style. June Dowse sang "Waltzing in the Clouds". Laura Schwartz and Mariel Mondor then did a military tap. Elaine Winston played the piano and Marie Kapinski, accompanied by a friend, did a Hungarian dance.

We would like to thank Peggy Heap for the able and willing way in which she accompanied a great majority of the soloists. We would also like to thank those who, through their individual efforts helped to make our Lit. Night the great success it was.

Art Roberts: Waiter, why aren't these eggs fresh?

Waiter: I don't know, I only laid the table.

Bill Miller: My girl calls me "maple sugar" because I'm such a refined sap.

AIR RAID

On the night of April 29, 1942, the R.A.F. raided and set fire to the great Nazis Naval Base of Kiel. Another force of the same planes struck at Trondheim, Norway for the second consecutive night.

The first raid on Trondheim on the night of April 28, 1942 was aided by diversionary attacks of the Coastal Air Command which hit two ships off Ausland, Norway, and struck oil tanks and airdromes ashore.

The ships known to be at Trondheim were the 35,000 ton battleship, Admiral Sheer, the eight inch gun cruisers, Prince Eugen and Admiral Hipper and a flotilla of destroyers, but the raid was mostly concentrated on the Naval Base itself.

On the afternoon of April 30, a gigantic air battle between the R.A.F. and the Nazis was fought.

Watchers on the cliffs at Folkstone followed the dog fights over Cap Gris Nez and Boulogne by the twisting threads of vapor trails. Heavy explosions echoed across the Dover Straits.

That night Canadian and British planes raided the suburbs of Paris and bombed the great Gnome-Rhone Motor Works.

At dawn fleets of fighter planes returned from the eighth straight day of round-the-clock raids and attacks on German-held territory.
